

Aboriginal North America and Europe: Strengthening Connections

An interdisciplinary international conference

November 11-13 2016

Faculty of English, Adam Mickiewicz University

Poznań, Poland

Call for papers

The aim of the conference is to bring together aboriginal and non-aboriginal North American and European scholars, artists and activists and provide a venue for exchanging views, ideas and scholarship findings related to the present, the past and the future of aboriginal peoples of North America. We invite scholars representing multiple disciplines (history, sociology, ethnology, anthropology, culture studies, literary studies, law, politicalology, linguistics and others) to share their research results and pedagogies; and aboriginal activists and artists to share their experiences, knowledge and art.

The language of the conference is English.

We invite proposals for 20-minute papers, 60-minute interactive workshops, round-table discussions, poetry and prose readings.

Please email your c. 250-word-long proposal and a brief CV to the conference secretaries at: strengtheningconnectionsposnan@gmail.com

Deadline for proposals is April 30th 2016. Submissions will be acknowledged by email. Acceptance information will be emailed to participants by May 15th 2016.
