Wielkie tematy literatury amerykańskiej – Tom 7

Miłość

Zaproszenie do nadsyłania tekstów

Szanowni Państwo!

W bieżącym roku mija jedenaście lat, odkąd ukazał się pierwszy tom Wielkich tematów literatury amerykańskiej. Zamysłem pomysłodawczyni serii, prof. Teresy Pyzik, było skierowanie publikacji do szerokiego grona odbiorców – grona, które nie ograniczałoby się tylko do czytelników wiedzących językiem angielskim. Decyzja o wydaniu serii w języku polskim okazała się trafna: do chwili obecnej ukazało się pięć tomów – T. 1. Bóg, wiara, religia, T.2. „Granica”, pogranicze, Zachód, T.3.

Miasteczka, miasta, metropole”, T.4. Rodzina, T. 5. Podróże, wędrówki, włóczęgi, a wkrótce ukaże się tom szósty, pt. Starość, śmierć – i wszystkie one spotkały się z ogromnym zainteresowaniem i pochlebnymi opiniami czytelników. Dlatego też – podejmując decyzję o kontynuacji serii – najserdeczniej zachęcamy Państwa do nadsyłania artykułów do kolejnego, siódmego tomu, którego tematem będzie Miłość w literaturze amerykańskiej. Proponujemy, aby tematyka artykułów dotyczyła dwóch obszarów:

1. Miłości człowieka do człowieka (miłości małżonków, rodziców do dzieci, siostrzanej;braterskiej, podwładnych do wiedzących, itp.)

2. Miłości człowieka do idei lub rzeczy (do Boga, ojczyzny, ziemi, pieniędzy, wolności, itp.)

W ramach tych dwóch obszarów, podobnie jak w poprzednich tomach, pozostawiamy Autorom swobodę interpretacji, poniżej przedstawiając jedynie kilka sugestii:

- miłość a wolność
- miłość nieodwzajemniona/niespełniona
- miłość narcystyczna
- miłość destrukcyjna, patologiczna lub wypaczona
- miłość romantyczna
- miłość i nienawiść
- trudna miłość

Discover Canada, a Nationwide Contest for Polish High School Students, planned as a three-stage annual event, is a joint project of Department of American and Canadian Studies, the Institute of English Cultures and literatures, University of Silesia in Katowice, and Liceum Ogólnokształcące im. Karola Miarki in Żory.

This pioneering educational initiative aims at broadening the cultural horizons of participating students by encouraging them to explore Canadian culture, history, education, politics, geography and current affairs, as well as introducing them to the Canadian exemplary ways of dealing with diversity in all its forms. In view of Europe's rising multiculturalism, Canada's successful multicultural policies can serve as a model for creating societies that celebrate diversity, difference, and inclusion. Contests such as Discover Canada can contribute to the process of educating future broadminded leaders of the new world who would create societies without prejudice and discrimination.

The patronage of the first edition of the contest Discover Canada 2014, was accepted by the Ambassador of Canada to Poland, H.E. Alexandra Bugailiskis, Minister of National Education Joanna Kluzik-Rostkowska, President of the University of Silesia Prof. zw. dr hab. Wiesław Banyś, President of the City of Żory, President of the City of Sosnowiec, and the Chief Education Officer in Katowice.

Discover Canada 2014 met with an immense interest of Polish high school students nationwide. They were provided with reading lists and reliable educational and government sponsored websites which helped them to prepare for the contest. Twelve hundred and seven students participated in the first stage of the project in the form of a written test. Forty students were selected for the second stage which took place at the Institute of English Cultures and Literatures, University of Silesia, on February 28th 2014. They wrote a high level test on a variety of Canadian topics and an essay on one of earlier published research topics. Twelve students were accepted for the finals of the contest organized at the Municipal Cultural Centre in Żory on April 16, 2014. They were examined on their knowledge of Canadian culture, politics , history and geography and they presented their well-researched power point presentations entitled 'The Spirit of Canada' in which they explored their understanding of most distinctive and important signifiers of Canadianness. The responses were evaluated for the contents, critical thinking skills and maturity of ideas by Canadianists representing University of Silesia and Polish Association for Canadian Studies, as well as "Native speakers" of English.

The participants of the second and third stage of the contest showed a very good grasp of many Canadian Studies topics, both in writing and oral responses and presentations. They were very well prepared, highly motivated, and passionate about Canada which is all the more remarkable as they had to learn about this country in extra curricula school activities or individually, as Canadian Studies topics are underrepresented in the Polish high school curriculum and rarely introduced by interested teachers.

The following prizes have been secured for the contest winners: the admission to the Institute of English Cultures and Literatures, and to the Institute of English Language (2 places) (after graduation from high school), and high financial awards (3000 PLN for the first prize, 2000 PLN for the second, and 1000 PLN for the third - sponsored by the President of the City of Zory), as well as book awards sponsored by various publishing houses and the Canadian Embassy which also funded the development and maintenance of the contest website and a post-contest dinner. Several local companies also contributed to the organization of various contest activities.
